

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

JULIA KELLER-MCINTYRE,

No. C-06-3209 MMC

Plaintiff,

ORDER DIRECTING PARTIES TO CEASE COMMUNICATING WITH COURT
BY EMAIL

v.

COLLEGE OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES, SAN FRANCISCO STATE UNIVERSITY,

Defendants

On June 26 and June 27, 2006, the Court received a total of four emails from plaintiff, and was cc'd on an email from defendant to plaintiff. The parties are hereby advised that the Court's email address is to be used only after the instant case is designated for electronic filing, and then only for the purposes set forth in General Order 45. Consequently, no document emailed to the Court in the instant action is deemed filed. In particular, plaintiff's emailed request for a jury trial and her emailed change of address have no legal effect unless and until they are properly filed.¹

For the reasons set forth above, the parties are hereby directed to cease communicating with the Court by email.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: June 27, 2006

MAXINE M. CHESNEY
United States District Judge

¹ On June 27, 2006, a paper copy of plaintiff's jury demand was filed. To date, plaintiff's change of address has not been filed.
